PAST DUE ACCOUNTS

If an account becomes 2 months past due, the student will be subject to suspension from OCA until the account is current or approval is given from the administrator for a deferred payment plan. If the student remains suspended from the classroom for the period of one month, the student may be administratively withdrawn from the school.

If your account becomes 30 days past due twice in a semester the administration has the right to refuse re-enrollment the following semester. In such cases, an appeal letter will need to be provided to the School Board for approval of reinstatement prior to the start of the following semester.

Accounts must be paid in full for a senior to receive his/her diploma.

Outstanding accounts may have their records held until payment is made.

LUNCH PROGRAM

Lunches will be available to all students for purchase from our cafeteria. Each student will be assigned a student ID and lunches may be purchased using that ID. Money can be added to the account by bringing money to the school or online with the EZ Pay lunch program which can be accessed on our website. (Go to ocrusaders.com; click on Student Resources; click on Lunches; click on the EZ chalkboard and that will take you to the EZ Pay sign up.) If you pay by credit card/online we require a $20 minimum.
